

FRIENDS OF THE FOUNDATION MEMBERSHIP FORM

The objectives of the Dr Edward Koch Foundation are to improve the health and well-being of North Queenslanders, conduct health research and development projects, promote and initiate preventive and educational health programs, and link with other groups with similar objectives in far North Queensland. The Foundation, a non-profit organisation, was established in March 1977 to promote organisations and activities that alleviate ill health in North Queensland.

Subscriptions for "Friends of the Foundation" provide both financial and physical support for the activities of the Foundation. In return, Friends receive copies of our newsletter, annual reports, and invitations to special events held by the Foundation and special concessions events.
